Minutes of a Meeting of the Executive Board

August 20, 2019

The Executive Board of Riesentöter Region, Porsche Club of America, Inc., held a meeting on Tuesday, August 20, 2019, at the home of Dave and Maggie Nettleton, Ardmore, Pennsylvania. The voting members present were Jeffrey Walton, Wendy Walton, Margaret Nettleton, David Nettleton, Garrett Hughes, and Roy Blumberg; accordingly, a quorum was present at the meeting. The voting members absent were Corey McFadden, Christopher Barone, Marty Kocse and Brian Minkin. Also present at the invitation of the Board was Lisa Hughes.

Jeffrey Walton called the meeting to order at 6:45 PM. He opened the meeting with the commitment from Porsche of the Main Line for $10,000 to the Riesentöter Foundation as the Primary Sponsor for Phila-A-Trunk. Capital Grille is also a sponsor. Seven car clubs have committed to date. Jeff will be interviewed on 610 WIP on October 29th by Steve the Car Guy. We are hoping for 1,000 to 1,500 cars to participate. RTR will leave from Capital Grille.

RTR members will again have a presence at The Radnor Concourse on September 8th. Also, the Phillies/Red Sox Tailgate on September 14th is sold out.

The PCA/RTR custom watch will now be available for sale to RTR members. A notice will be put in Der Gasser.

Wendy Walton next updated the club Social activities. An Ice Cream Happy Hour will be held this Thursday, August 22nd. She is looking for locations for a September Happy Hour. The upcoming Capital Grille Wine Pairing is sold out. Forty tickets have been sold for the Ford versus Ferrari movie night on November 14th or 15th. She is planning a drive and breakfast at The Whip. A Night Rally is planned for October 26th. And finally, the Annual Holiday will be on December 7th.

Dave Nettleton updated information on the August 24th Street Survival at Oxford Valley Mall as well as the combined RTR/NNJR/NJSCCA Auto Cross at Pocono on September 22nd. He also discussed the Porsche Boardwalk Reunion on October 19th in Ocean City, New Jersey. Jeff noted that a caravan will leave from King of Prussia.

Garrett Hughes reported the next issue of Der Gasser is ready for production.

Roy Blumberg reported the following membership numbers –

Members -1651

Associate – 927

Total -2578

He also is planning a new member breakfast in September in the King of Prussia area.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:10 PM on a motion by Wendy Walton, seconded by Dave Nettleton, and unanimously passed.

Respectfully submitted,

Margaret Miners Nettleton
