PCA BLISSON

OCTOBER
1978

President's Message

An often overlooked facet of the Riesentöter year is the presentation of the Riesentöter Award. This award is presented to the member who has contributed the most in time and effort to the club.

The actual rules for determining the recipient have changed several times since I have been a member. Curiously enough the award seems to go to the right person regardless of the system.

Currently the recipient is decided upon by a committee of three: the competition chairman, the prior year's recipient and a member at large. These are respectively: Paul Walsack, Bob Patton, and Joe Shelanski. These three people need your input to help them make the best decision.

Every member is eligible. This also includes the females. Executive committee members are expected to devote some time by the nature of their position, so we must look beyond their inherent duties.

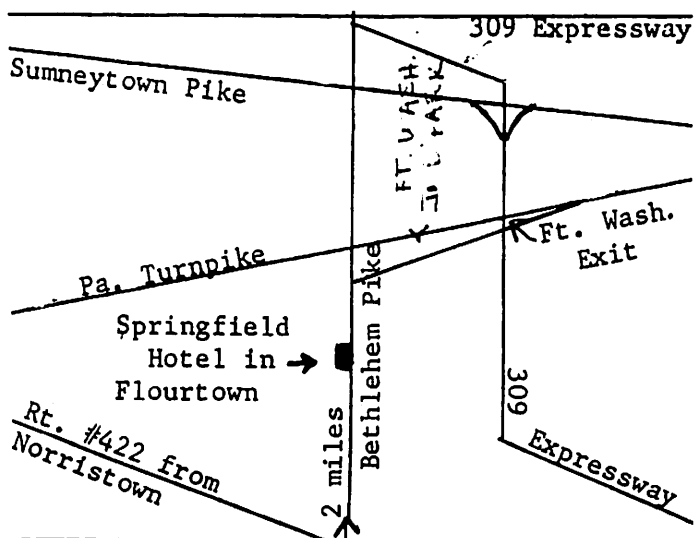

Please tell the committee your preference.

Bob

Meeting Notice

The October 25 meeting of Riesentöter Region, PCA will be at 8:30pm at the Springfield Hotel, Flourtown.

PROGRAM: The first order of business will be election of 1979 officers. Afterward, there will be an extensive review of an unusual event: Treffen 1978. Bill and Judy Smith have just returned from eine Reise nach Deutschland mit Porsche-fabrikprobieren. While still fresh in their memories, albeit with the risk of postprandial emesis attributed to jet lag, the Smiths will relate the most memorable parts of their tour of Porsche Country. Parental Guidance is recommended.

Special Notice

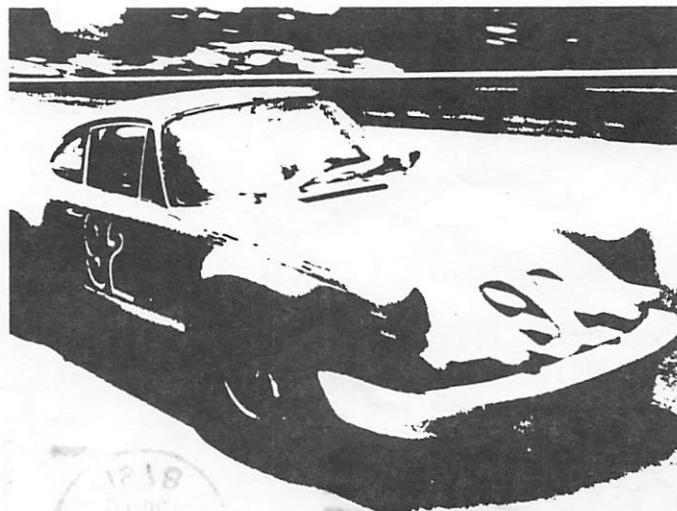

WE WANT YOU!

Our first banquet some ten years ago (could it possibly be that long?) was one that I looked to with trepidation. What would I wear? What would "they" wear? Who would we talk to? Would "they" talk to us?

I remember the night as a sea of faces, a wall of door prizes, dinner, dancing, and the usual speeches and innuendos that meant nothing to me. However, we did meet a nice couple -- their first banquet also -- and a relationship grew.

Eight more banquets still had me thinking about what I would wear, but it also had me wondering if the Smiths would be there, or the Freemans, or the Reeds. By now I knew that the Walters would be there, and the Fleglers, and the Russos -- many relationships grew.

On Saturday evening, December 2, 1978 our Region will be celebrating its twenty-first Annual Banquet at the William Penn Inn in Gwynedd, PA. Once again there will be cocktails, a delicious dinner, dancing, speeches, and door prizes: these seem to be integral parts of all banquets. What really makes the evening special, however, are the people who attend this event. Most likely there will be some new faces, some old friends, and the regulars who somehow always manage to participate.

Do yourself a favor -- if this is your first banquet, your 21st, or somewhere in between -- join us for a wonderful evening. You are the most important ingredient, and one we can't do without!
